As to coal, the timber supply being aburdant, knocks at the gate of the city and calculated to supply the wants of the people for many years to come. No par-ticular attention has been paid to prospecting, although Prof. Mudge has that there is a ten inch surface vein in ex-istence in Mulberry and Bloom townships, n the northwestern part of the county THE DISCOVERY OF VEINS is also reported in other localities. When needed, however, Fing county can develop her coal resources, and the question of fuel can never become a vital one. Build-ing stone abounds in inexhaustible quanities, and nearly every farmer in the couny has a quarry of the very finest building material upon his farm. The magnesian mestone is the most plentiful, and being easily quarried and dressed, besides being very durable, as it hardens upon exporure, s extensively used. This stone is one of the handsomest building materials to be found anywhere, and besides being used for business blocks it is being utilized extensively in the county in the erection of farm houses, outbuildings, etc. BROWN AND RED SANDSTONE are also found in several of the townships Leavenworth should make a note of this. of the county, while gypsum has been dis covered of good quality, in Oakland and Goshen townseips. Fire clay is also re-ported as having been found in the former, and pottery clay in the latter.

THE COUNTY HAS TWO BAILROADS, he Junction City and Fort Kearney branch of the Kansas Pscific road, running from Junction City through Clay Center to Clifton, and the Central Branch of the Union Pacific road, which however, merely touches the county at Clifton. Since the change in ownership of the Kansas Central road, the people of the county are having high hopes of its extension from Onsga, in Pottawotomie county, westward to Clay Center, while the fact is in the matter be ing talked up and a proposition will prob-ably be made by the railroad officials, who, it is understood, are anxious to go to Clay HENRY ETTENSON. sort of a fair inducement,

THE EXTENSION OF THE KANSAS CENTRAL would make a new era in westward railosding, and with the great capital now behind it is safe to presume that when the little iron pony begins his journey towards the setting sun, he will not rest until his shrill neigh reechoes among the reverberating canons of the mighty Rockies. The people of this part of the county have a great deal of faith in narrow guage railof another eastern connection. A visit from the officers of the road to Clay Center will be made in a few days and it will then be seen as to what arrangements can e arrived at in regard to the matter of aid. The extension of the road would be A BIG THING FOR THE COUNTRY

CLAY CENTRE was an abhorence. The bottom land of the county will average about eleven per cent, and the forest land, according to the government survey, is something over four per cent, the largest acreage of timber land of any of the counties in the northwest, the average usually being not much over two per cent. Indeed, it is something unusual to see a Kansas county, with the exception of those berdering upon the Missouri river, with a timber accurage of four per cent, and in the matter of forest, therefore, Clay heads her competitors, and stands first among the counties of the state in this regard. Many farmers are also paying considerable attention to the PLANTING OF TREES, and the cultivation of artificial forests, so that, together with what nature has done for the county, and what man is doing for the county and the cultivition of the proportion of enterprise important and the high the city is the city of a extensive budy of the footh of the county of the cou was an abhorrence. THE GOSPEL OF JOY. The Gospel of Joy is a new Singing Book of unusual beauty for Gospei Meetings, Camp Meetings, Devotional Meetings and Sunday schools, By Rev "amuel Alman and S. H. Speck.

It contains a large number of new and very superior hymns and tunes. The general style is very cheerful and bright, as bedits a collection that has so much to say and sing about "Glad Tidings of Great Joy." Both words and music are of an elevated character, commending themselves to per-sons of refined taste, and the "dancing meas-ure" so prevaient in many recent composi-tions has been carefully avoided. Price 55 cents, for which specimen copies will be mailed to any address. See Decoration Day Music in the Musical Record, 6 cents.
